To Hold "Grand Dogwatch."

Conspicuous among the subsidiary encampments will be the "Grand Dogwatch" of the naval veterans of the Federal forces. Although the G. A. R. has held forty-eight encampments, the naval veterans have played an inconspicuous part in the gatherings. It is planned to give the naval veterans a prominent place in the reunion.

He would find them abutting the Thames near London, stretched along the shores of the historic Avon and dotted here and there from the vicinity of the beautiful Midway in Kent to the Severn on the English West Coast. He would find them in North England, Scotland and Wales, and could have his choices from among spicuous part in the gatherings. It is planned to give the naval veterans and modern. Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache? USE ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS

Dr. J. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not shorten life, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to undergo the periodical attacks every few weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent, and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack are all that it is possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two Anti-kamnia Tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one Anti-kamnia Tablet every two hours during the attack shortens it, eases the pain and brings rest and quiet.

Anti-kamnia may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They quickly relieve all pain.

KANSAS BACHELORS

Many Write the Governor They Want a Husband, But He Must Not Drink.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 27.-That many oung women want to get married and are not afraid to say so is evidenced by the numerous letters received at the governor's office in answer to the call of Sitks, Kan., bachelors for wives. Two notable features characterise the letters. One is that they came mostly from women east of the Mississippi river; the other is that most of the women, as badly as they want husbands, insist that the bachelors must not drink liquor. The sentiment against drinking runs as strong in the letters from the New York city girls as from those of other sections of the country. Some of the letters are amusing, some pathetic. In nearly every case the woman describes herself, "I am considered very good looking." Most of them also confess that they are good housekeepers and expert cooks. Also they are very fond of outdoor life, and would be satisfied with a loving husband and a farm. One New York girl, however, was more particular than the rest. Her letter reads: "Wanted—A farmer with $1,000,000 cash. No other need apply." She is liable to want for some time, as all millionaire farmers in Kansas are already married. river; the other is that most of the

No Soldiers For Her.

Another New York woman writes that she has three daughters whom she would like to marry off to Kansas farmers. She lives at West Point. She says: "Most of the men here are soldiers and earn very little money, and are not proper men for my girls."

A Springfield, Ill., girl, who describes herself as "five feet by three tail" and is very anxious to come to Kansas, as she says she lives "away down here in northern Illinois, forly miles from land, thirty from sea, and 400 from nowhere."

A New York girl rather looks upon the question of landing a Kansas bachelor as a lottery, as she writes: "If any of the Sitks bachelors want to take a chance with a good girl they may write to me."

Here is an appeal from a woman near Chicago: "I am so tired of office life. diers and earn very little money, and Chicago: "I am so tired of office life. Times are hard here, and some of us will suffer this winter. I am a Chris-tian and have kept my good character. I have no money to come to Kansas; Kansas will have to come to me. Hop-ing that the trust I am placing in you will not be betrayed, I will await the outcome."

Four New York nurses have applied for husbands. They say they are tired of the grind in sick rooms and want fresh air and good farmers to love them.

A Brooklyn girl wants a "tall, dark, and handsome fellow with no bad habits." She is living on a large income and "would be willing to share it with a good husband. Wants Her Name Filed.

Hoosier woman from Indianapolis who is fond of music and art asks that her "name be placed on file for a Sitka A woman from Hopkinsville, Ky.,

A Brooklyn woman frankly admits:

The governor's office has received more than 200 such letters. The women more than aw such letters. The women are doomed to disappointment, for the governor is running no matrimonial bureau and the Sitka bachelors will have to look elsewhere for wives, he says.

Higher Frugality.
